

Rationale:

- The student welfare procedures and practices that operate at Karuah Public School are designed to promote effective learning for all students in a happy and safe environment. Karuah Public School is a PBL (Positive Behavior for Learning) school.
- These policies and practices are underpinned by the school values and beliefs. These values and beliefs were derived from extensive community consultation and discussion with the entire school community: Students, Teachers, Parents and Community.

At Karuah Public School we value:	At Karuah Public school we believe:
	Respect looks like:
RESPECT	Listening attentively.
	• Following instructions the first time.
	• Speaking politely to all and at all times.
	Honesty with yourself and others.
	Keeping hands and feet to yourself.
	Responsibility looks like:
RESPONSIBILITY	• Looking after self and others.
	 Looking after belonging and our school environment.
	• "Have a go" by being an active participant.
	Making good choices.
	Pride looks like:
PRIDE	Wearing full school uniform.
	Being prepared.
	Doing your personal best.
	Being a team player.
	Showing sportsmanship.

 Our school values and beliefs encourage the members of our school community to contribute in a productive and positive way to realize our values and school vision. Some roles and responsibilities are as follows:

Aims:

- Reinforcement of positive behaviours through PBL daily lessons.
- Commendations or recognition at assemblies, special school occasions and in structured and semiformal situations
- Regular ongoing contact with parents or caregivers, in person, by letter or by telephone
- Recognition in the local community by individual or group participation in special events
- Public acknowledgement, through the local media, of school and individual student achievements. PBL awards are presented within the community at Raymond Terrace Market Place.
- Reporting each semester. Teachers giving regular and positive feedback to students on an individual needs basis eg. Stickers, class awards (class dojo), monitoring bookwork, praise, blue certificates and its reward system incorporating zooper doopers, canteen vouchers, PeBbLes badge and Gift voucher.

Implementation:

- Students follow PBL code of behavior. Students understand the behavior consistency guide and the whole school matrixes.
- If a student's behavior is deemed inappropriate, teachers need to take action with the student. According to the Behavoiur Consistency Guide these steps should include:
- Reminder of rule and redirection. (green)
- Reminder of rule and explanation of possible consequences. (green)
- In class/ Playground time out. (green)
- Buddy class time out (Exit for classroom breach yellow)
- Planning Room (red)
- Principal notification (black)

Students have a yellow and red card notification system. Yellow and red cards are recorded in the school behaviors management system. Consequences are decided according to the behavior consistency guide.

Students have knowledge and understanding of the behavior consistency guide and whole school matrixes. This is through daily PBL lessons delivered by the classroom teacher. Oct 2017
